

Türkiye İş Bankası A.Ş. Donation and Contribution Principles

With the aim of fulfilling its social obligations in accordance with its establishment and operating purposes, Türkiye İş Bankası A.Ş. (Bank) determines the procedures regarding the donations and contributions to be made, in line with the legislation, taking into account corporate governance principles.

The Bank, within the framework of the legislation to which it is subject as well as İşbank Donation and Contribution Regulation accepted by the Board of Directors, can make donations and contributions on issues related to education, health, culture, art, scientific research, environmental protection, sports and similar social issues.

The upper limit of donations and contributions that the Bank can make has been determined as the maximum limit in the legislation by the General Assembly. The donations and contributions made are reported to the Audit Committee and Board of Directors within the framework of internal regulations and they are presented to the shareholders in the General Meeting of the relevant year with a separate agenda item.
